Local Marketing Workshop

How Local Businesses Can Get More Customers With Their Reputation

Dear Event Coordinator,

As if it were yesterday, I distinctly remember many of the powerful speakers and trainers that have impacted my business over the years. Their messages became the inspiration and direction that I needed to successfully grow my business and give back to my community.

I am committed to helping your members create new insights into growing their organization. As one of your speakers, my goal is to educate and inspire every single one of your attendees into making new innovations in their business.

Another goal I have as your speaker is to make you look good! My role is to support your organization's vision as well as bring them an educational platform that reflects your mission.

I GUARANTEE you will be happy with the results and I strive to make your program the BEST! I look forward to working with you!

MICHAEL SPEAKS ON:

HELP! HOW DO WE BUILD A 5 STAR REPUTATION

This strategic and motivating talk was developed recently to address what Wired Magazine considers the "Biggest Shift In Online Marketing - The New Reputation Economy." In this powerful, thought-provoking keynote speech, Michael helps professionals and organizations decode the secret of "Reputation Management" and gives them a simple step-by-step strategy building a 5 Star reputation and how to use that reputation to get more customers. Michael shares his NEW "Reputation Marketing" Strategies that can leverage the power of local directory sites like Yelp, Google+ and others to be the building blocks for new customers and marketplace leadership.

FIND MORE CUSTOMERS ONLINE

This encouraging talk helps businesses understand how to specifically target their market and how to build a powerful system for finding their customers online, generating more leads, and converting those leads into paying customers. Michael gives practical and tactical advice on each one of these specific strategies to help them all work together in finding more customers and dominating the market.

POSITION YOURSELF AS A MARKET LEADER

With new technologies emerging, businesses are finding it harder to use the internet to market, communicate, and effectively brand their organization. In this talk, Michael lays out his "Leading Edge" marketing strategies that any organization or professional can use to position themselves as the expert, instantly engage the marketplace, create top of mind brand recognition, and sell more products and services.

"The workshop presentations are fantastic! It's insightful and one of the best events our organization has had this year."
